Tennessee Safety Regulations
Tennessee law requires safety belts for drivers and front-seat passengers and for children ages 4-12. All children under the age of four must be properly restrained in a child restraint device.
The use of headlights is required during any condition requiring windshield wipers.
Approved helmets are required by drivers and passengers of any motor driven cycles.
Don't Drink and Drive! Tennessee has strict laws on driving while under the influence of alcohol. Also, no open containers of alcoholic substances are permitted.
